

Poster Number	First name	Last name	Title
1	Keerthi	Bandi	Frequency of Medical Visits as a Predictor of New Opioid Prescriptions for Non-Malignant Back Pain
2	Donna	Bartlett	Deprescribing Cascade of Polypharmacy, Anticholinergic Burden, and Frailty
3	Meera	Bhagat	Interventions to Optimize Medication Management in Patients with Language and Health Literacy Barriers: Developing a Conceptual Model from a Scoping Review
4	Martin	Casey	Characteristics of older adults receiving counsel on benefits and risks of aspirin after a bleeding-related emergency department visit: A pilot study
5	Kieran	Dalton	What is a prescribing cascade? A scoping review of definitions
6	Wei (Denise)	Duan-Porter	CHARACTERISTICS AND CLINICAL CONTEXT OF OUTPATIENT OPIOID TREATMENT THROUGHVA CARE IN THE COMMUNITY
7	Alexa	Ehlert	Impact of Recent Guideline Changes on Aspirin Use for Primary Prevention in Older Veteran Nursing Home Residents with Dementia
8	Tesfahun	Eshetie	A systematic review to inform emulation of deprescribing randomised controlled trials: Using real-world data within the Registry of Senior Australians (ROSA) platform
9	Noah	Feder	UTILIZATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF GLUCAGON PRODUCTS FOR SEVERE HYPOGLYCEMIA IN MEDICAID: 2012-2022
10	Polly	Fraga	Naloxone Outreach Initiative: A Pharmacist-Led Quality Improvement (QI)Study
11	Ishani	Ganguli	Telemedicine adoption and low-value care use among older adults in traditional Medicare: a difference-in-differences analysis
12	Andrew	Geller	U.S. Emergency Department Visits by Older Adults for Bleeding related to Oral Anticoagulants and Concomitant Antiplatelet Agents, 2022
13	Carole	Goodine	Deprescribing Electronic Decision Support for Older Adults Living in Long-Term Care Homes

14	Matthew	Growdon	Which older adults are at highest risk of prescribing cascades? A study of the gabapentinoid- loop diuretic cascade
15	Matthew	Growdon	E-CONSULTATION FOR DEPRESCRIBING AMONG OLDER ADULTS IN PRIMARY CARE: EVALUATING BARRIERS TO AND FACILITATORS OF IMPLEMENTATION
16	Samantha	Hillen	Development of Artificial Intelligence-Assisted Deprescribing Chatbot for Patients with Cystic Fibrosis Discontinuing Proton Pump Inhibitors
17	Samuel	Terman	Variation in seizure risk increases from antiseizure medication withdrawal among patients with well-controlled epilepsy: A pooled analysis
18	Ainur	Kagarmanova	Decrease in opioid prescribing among older adults with chronic pain following implementation of the I-COPE toolkit
19	Roni	Kraut	Antihypertensive Deprescribing in Long-Term Care: A Randomized Controlled Trial (OptimizeBP)
20	Julie	Lauffenburger	Feasibility of engaging care partners for electronic outreach interventions in primary care
21	Julie	Lauffenburger	Impact of simulation training on high-risk prescribing to older adults by junior physicians in the inpatient setting: Pragmatic randomized trial
22	Jiha	Lee	Changes in long-term GC use among older adults after new diagnosis of late-onset rheumatoid arthritis
23	Jimmy	Lee	Assessing the Usability and Acceptability of MedSafer: A Patient-Centered Deprescribing Tool
24	John	Mafi	Paxlovid Distribution Policy in Canada: A Natural Experiment
25	Amanda	Mixon	Reducing polypharmacy in hospitalized older Veterans through deprescribing: a randomized clinical trial

26	Mostafa	Mohamed	Polypharmacy, Potential Drug Interactions, and Adverse Outcomes in Older Adults with Cancer Receiving Immune Checkpoint Inhibitors (ICI)
27	Earl	Morris	High-throughput Screening Detects Potential Dihydropyridine Calcium Channel Blocker-Induced Prescribing Cascades
28	Katherine	Nault	Deprescribing through an ICU Transitions of Care Rotation for Pharmacy Students
29	Marcio Galvão	Oliveira	Deprescribing antihypertensives in older people in Brazilian primary care: subgroup analysis of the MINOR randomized clinical trial
30	Helen	Omuya	Enhancing Older Veterans' Care: Insights from Medication Reviews and Deprescribing Interventions
31	Helen	Omuya	Breaking Barriers, Transforming Care: The VA Caribbean Healthcare System's Success Strategies in Improving Patient Safety through VIONE Medication Deprescribing Methodology
32	Lindsay	Pelcher	Early Implementation Lessons of the EMPOWER Intervention to Deprescribe High-Risk Medications in VA Outpatient Care
33	Aimee	Pickering	Facilitators of and Barriers to Deprescribing Diabetes Medications in Older Adults: A Qualitative Study
34	Jacob	Plaisted	Polypharmacy: A Growing Concern of Aging Populations
35	Kevin	Pritchard	Opioid Deprescribing Rates and Predictors after Fracture: A retrospective cohort study of 2013-2018 Medicare enrollees with dementia or frailty
36	Klea	Profka	Automated Text Message-Based Program to Manage Uncontrolled Blood Pressure in Primary Care Patients: A Randomized Clinical Trial
37	Rosalphie	Quiles	Conversations between Pharmacists and Patient-Care Partner Dyads to Align Medications with What Matters Most
38	Thomas	Reese	Restarting medications after successful deprescribing: retrospective analysis of a randomized clinical trial

39	Rintu	Saju	Evaluation of the effectiveness of care coordination on medication adherence among high-cost, high need commercially insured beneficiaries
40	Mahnum	Shahzad	The Impact of Negative Confirmatory Trials on Prescription Volumes for Indications Approved using the FDA's Accelerated Approval Pathway
41	Erica	Sharpe	Remotely-delivered Yoga Nidra for Decreasing Use of BZRAs for Insomnia and Anxiety in Older Adults: Protocol and Recruitment Progress
42	Helen	Shi	Assessing the implementation of clinical pharmacist outreach for medication titration in a remote patient monitoring program for hypertension
43	Jennifer	Stoll	Addressing Health System Complexities for Older Adults with MCCs: A Caregiver Perspective
44	Alexandria	Wahler	Development of the Team Alice Senior Center Curriculum on Medication Safety
45	Katharina	Tabea Jungo	Associations between gender, race/ethnicity and age and the discontinuation of chronic high-risk medications use in US older adults
46	Katharina	Tabea Jungo	Care partner attitudes towards using digital health tools for medication management and optimization in persons living with dementia
47	Robert	Wahler	Prevalence of Potentially Inappropriate Medications and Associated Geriatric Syndromes from a Health Information Exchange database in Western New York
48	Kelly	Tenzek	Spreading the message: Introducing Team Alice educational medication safety videos to at risk older adults
49	Connor	Wurst	The Cognitive Work of Deprescribing: A Human Factors Pilot
50	Brianna	Wang	Older Adults' and Clinicians' Perspectives on Using, Prescribing, and Deprescribing Opioids for Chronic Pain: A Qualitative Analysis
51	Carla	Williams	Needs Assessment for Geriatric Oncology Curriculum Development

52	Linnea	Wilson	Gaps in Care for Older Adults Discharged from the Hospital with Changes to Cardiometabolic Medications
53	Nicole	Wong	Improving Stimulant Prescribing Practices and Safety in a Large Urban Primary Care Practice
54	Jinjiao	Wang	Feasibility and acceptability of implementing deprescribing in post-acute home health care
55	Chun-Ting	Yang	Pattern and Barriers of Benzodiazepine Discontinuation Among Older Adults Following Hospitalization
56	Chun-Ting	Yang	Discontinuation of antipsychotic medications in older adults following hospitalization and risks of adverse clinical outcomes
57	Audrey	Zhang	Initiation and Persistence of Antipsychotic Prescriptions at Hospital Discharge Among Community-Dwelling US Veterans with Dementia